MARY BLACK TIES A RECORD.

The day at Washington Park was one of delightful breezes, the flying clouds which threatened thunder storms sailing across the record breaking track and depositing their moisture in Lake Michigan.

Concerning the race track war Col. W. E. Applegate said that an agreement of some kind was likely to be reached today. He further stated that the correct status of affairs was defined in RACING FORM and that the sensational "scrap" ascribed to Corrigan and Rose on Saturday last was a story made out of whole cloth, as he was present when the parties met in the betting ring and no unkind word was spoken. "Mr. Corrigan is a demonstrative talker," said he, "and his actions could easily be misunderstood at a little distance away."

The crowd was a small one, even for Monday, and the betting correspondingly light. The scratching of Hardy Pardee from the second race, Dunois from third, Tartarian and Bellissimo from the fifth deprived the card of much interest. "The Ghost," a noted turf plunger some years ago was at the track, but as a bookmaker remarked, "He is now so tame he would feed from your hand."

Necedah led to the last three-sixteenths where Roger B, always third, came on and won the race easily. Dorothy III. was second to the last turn and finished third; no others prominent after the first three-eighths of a mile. Can't Dance was last nearly all the way. Sidonian was fourth at the quarter, but gave up the "Kentucky place" to Whitcomb.

Fontainebleu, a colt that has before started at the meeting and "not done much," as the fellow said, was well backed by the followers of Clawson, although his price was 15 to 1, and brought home the money in grand style, finishing like a bull dog, and beating the "good thing," Frank Bell, who, off second to Souchon, led the pack to the bleaching boards. Batten, third, was well up. Sevens receded in price on account of McNickle, a boy, strange to say, that the public does not fancy, although he can, like many another unfashionable jockey, ride well enough if everything goes smoothly. Souchon ran as if her defeat by Spirituelle had deprived her of heart. Mike Wasserman, who on Derby day said, "Clawson is good enough for me," won a bet on Fontainebleu.

Bernardillo just managed to win through the superior tactics of Thorpe, who, off in front laid along in second and third position throughout and got the rail into the straight. Teutonna, who finished second, was last at the quarter and into the home stretch, came on the outside. She seemed to be winning easily, being in front at the last sixteenth, but was beaten in a hard drive to the wire. Joe Clark, third, led until after the last bend was made. Bishop Reed flattered his backers by his close second on the far turn. Goose Liver never scared anybody. The betting on this race was so even that the long shots, first and second started at 4 to 1 each.

In the fourth race Mary Black broke from behind, at once got the lead and won with the boy sitting still. Afamada was always second and Lady Ellerslie third. The time, 1:12, beat the track record by half a second and tied the record for the distance, heretofore jointly held by O'Connell and Flora Louise.

Friar John won because Vandusen on Muskalonge rode a bad race. Mr. Dwyer here, as throughout the day, got the horses off well together. Passing the stand Official led, Friar John second, Pinar del Rio third. On the extreme outside came Clawson on Mistletoe, boiling for the lead, but going up the back stretch Official, Mistletoe, Friar John was the order, all close together, at the half mile ground Yuba Dam was fourth. Here from away behind Muskalonge could be seen "eating up horses." Treachery, well back, was fifth; others quite out of it. When straightened for home Mistletoe and Official were driving in front and Friar John got the persuader at the eighth post, where the trio racing in front were joined by Muskalonge, who had been a long journey, and so tiring succumbed to Friar John but beat Treachery, who came fast the last quarter, for the place.

Forte, fifth up the back stretch, was moved up by Clawson on the far turn, but cut off, trailed on the rail until the quartette—Found, Heigh Ho, Don Orsino and George Kratz, running in the order named—swinging wide into the straight. Forte got through, and, with plenty left, won the race in the next eighth, the others stopping badly. George Kratz beat Don Orsino for place and Found died to nothing. Tom Calvert was never in it.

Jake Saunders looks well in a bicycle suit. The blind boy who sells programs stands at the north gate and is well patronized.

Abe Sheppard, just in from St. Louis, reports that things might be better at that point, and that only Hughey Jones and one or two other bookmakers have made money. "They bar bad actors in the betting," said he, "Tranby and Linda for instance. I cannot say whether or not the system is beneficial. This hard book way of making book at Washington Park is kinder crude, isn't it?"

"Paragon Joe" is a big winner. Kirk Bothwell's system of handicapping has received a shock by the "greased lightning" track, which is now marked "A A" by form players.

"Little Wally" is wearing goggles. Captain Tilles, owner of Don Orsino, beat the syndicate bookmakers to the Memphis betting privileges, established open betting and cleaned up $15,000 on the meeting.

Mr. Stickler wishes it understood that, whereas he has tried hard, he hasn't won a bet in several days.

George Rose laughingly said: "The story printed about the fight between Corrigan and myself was the most ridiculous thing I ever read."

The boys say that John Roach cashes more tickets than anybody.

"Big John" Kammerer, Jake Schaefer's father-in-law, has been doing well.

"Al Farrow" Smith still tells of the days when he ran quarter horses in Central America.

Al Taylor is living in Louisville.

Inspector Hunt is always around "with his eye on the gun."

David Waldo has gone to Kansas City for a few days.

Tim McCall, the crack whist player, is with Marcus Cartwright.

Neither Riley Grannon nor Charley Quinn was engaged in betting transactions.

Fontainebleu is trained by John Rodegap. Bernardillo ran a vastly improved race.

Bill Daniels, Frank Phillips and Walter Gum were caught in the act of trying to beat the record eating a watermelon.

Sam Wagner plaintively wails: "I have even lost my mustache."

"Hutch" and Loser, being inseparable, have been dubbed "The Chinese Brothers," as Charley Perkins used to call the "The Siamese Twins."

WHEELER HANDICAP WEIGHTS.

Easily the most valuable handicap event of the western turf, the Wheeler Handicap, has from its first running been held to be second in importance and interest to none of the Washington Park's stake fixtures. It has been won by a succession of slashing good racehorses and always in very fast time. This year it had an entry list of seventy-five of the best horses of the western turf, and to justly apportion their weights was a task of no slight difficulty. Yet Secretary Howard has assigned their imposts in a way that must inevitably bring to the post a very large field of brilliant performers. Whether that memorable race won by Morello will be equaled this year is an open question, but so well have the weights been adjusted and so superlatively fast is the track this year that it will hardly be surprising if such proves to be the case. There is a wonderful array of speed in the race, and without analyzing the handicap it must be said that Simon W., 122; Satsuma, 120; White Frost, 117; Macy, 117; Imp, 115; The Roman, 112; Won't Dance, 110; Pink Coat, 109; Bannockburn, 109; Dunois, 107; Goodrich, 107; Judge Denny, 105; John Bright, 105; Morte Fosse, 104; Isabey, 104; Elusive, 104; Bangle, 103; Candleblack, 101; Eddie Jones, 100; Pingree, 100, and Al Fresco, 99, are a collection of fast horses that are so well treated in the light of their performances that every one of them should be sent to the post.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Barring his first two races, Glenheim has been a brilliant disappointment, but he may presently prove himself the good colt he was at one time believed to be. Morning Telegraph says of him: "Glenheim seems to improve all the while and shows more life and vigor than at any time since he came from the west. Frohsinn, whose stake engagements are the Great Eastern Handicap at the Coney Island fall meeting and the Junior Champion at Brooklyn, is also doing well."

After having been given a let-up Typhoon II is again doing speedy galloping and fresh and good will probably be seen at the post again before long. Too many sprints with "tons" of weight up affected him for a time.

Owen Bradley has purchased of P. T. Chinn the 2-year-old bay colt by Liberty—Havana, by Bubbler, and of G. D. Wilson the bay gelding Waldorf, 4, by Whistle Jacket—Stephanie, by Powhattan.

Fred Berlew, who has trained quite successfully for some time for W. C. Daly, has parted company with the erratic "Sage of Hartford."

YEARLING SALES IN ENGLAND.

"North Yorkshireman," the well-informed English turf correspondent of the Spirit of the Times, furnishes the following gossip account of the leading sales at Newmarket recently:

"The first July meeting at Newmarket, England, is generally as interesting to turfmen the world over, by reason of its yearling sales as for its racing. This year the week proved no exception to the rule, and some nicely bred youngsters brought remunerative figures."

"Mr. J. W. Larnach, owner of the Derby winner, Jeddah, paid the highest price of the week, 3,200 guineas, for the bay or brown colt Simonswood, full brother to Simonside, by St. Simon out of Daisy Chain. Simonside, who is two years old, won the Forty-first Biennial for Lord Carnarvon at the recent Ascot meeting, and was himself a high priced yearling, having cost 2,000 guineas at the first July sale a year ago. Daisy Chain is by Springfield out of Chatelaine, by Cambuscan."

"The second highest priced yearling of the week was also by St. Simon, this being the filly Winifreda, purchased by Mr. L. Brassey for 3,000 guineas. Winifreda was bred by Mr. Daniel Cooper, and her dam, Melody, is by Tyne-dale (son of Warlock), out of Glee, she by Adventurer out of Sweet Sound, by Rataplan. Mr. Cooper's lot also included Flametta, a bay filly by Isinglass, out of Glare, which was bought by Captain Machell for 1,550 guineas. This filly is from a great racing family, for her dam is a half-sister to the winners, Float and Serpentine, while the grandam was Footlight, the grandam of Ladas and Chelandy, respectively, winners of the Derby and One Thousand Guineas. Glare's half-sister, Float, was also represented in Mr. Cooper's lot, her colt by Orme, bringing 1,300 guineas to the bid of Mr. W. M. Clark, who won this year's Lincolnshire Handicap with Prince Barcardine."

"The young Ormes are winning at a lively rate this year, and so it was not surprising that another of his colts should have brought a nice price, this being the son of Miss Decima, which was in Captain Fife's lot, and was taken by Mr. A Sadler at 1,550 guineas. Miss Decima is by Springfield out of Saga, she by Petrarch out of Napoli, by Macaroni. Like Float and Glare, Miss Decima is out of the Pawn branch of family 1, which produced this year's Derby winner, Jeddah."

"Probably the most fashionably bred youngster of the week, however, was the colt by St. Simon—Dart, in Colonel Brocklehurst's lot. This colt was bought by Mr. W. H. Walker for 1,550 guineas. His full sister brought the smashing sum of $5,000 guineas just a year ago, and as she failed to develop into a great stake winner, the present yearling may prove to have been something of a bargain. His dam, Dart, is by Thunderbolt (son of Stockwell), out of Taugenichts, by Toxophilite, and Taugenichts is a full sister to Quiver, dam of those two tremendous St. Simon fillies Memoir and La Fleche. Mr. Marcus Daly owns a nice mare right out of this family, namely, The Task, by Barcardine—Satchel, she by Galopin (St. Simon's sire) out of Quiver."

"Grand old Galopin was represented by some attractive yearlings. His colt out of Cassimere, in Mr. J. B. Wood's lot, was bought by Mr. W. Jarvis for 1,250 guineas, while his filly out of Mary Seaton, bred in the Blankney Stud, went to Mr. W. H. Walker for 1,200 guineas. Cassimere is by Camballo out of Cachmere, by Thormanby. Mary Seaton is by Isonomy out of Mary Stewart, by Scottish Chief, a great family. Mary Stuart herself won the Oaks and St. Leger in 1873, and her dam Morzan-la Faye, produced

YEARLING SALES IN ENGLAND.

Lady Morgan, whose daughter Morganette has earned imperishable renown as the dam of Galtee More.

"A filly by Retreat, out of Kilcock's dam, Bonnie Morn, was bought by Captain Homfray for 1,100 guineas, while one of the grandest colts of the week, by Blue Green—Zetrophe, was secured by Mr. R. Marsh for 1,200 guineas. Blue Green is himself out of Angelica, sister to St. Simon, and the resemblance of this colt to St. Simon in his yearling days was widely commented on. The above-mentioned comprise all the yearlings which brought over 1,000 guineas, except the Irish-bred filly Waterstown, by Galinule (son of Isonomy) out of Rose d'Amour, which went to Mr. Reid Walker for 1,050 guineas.

"Some very nice brood mares changed hands during the week. Rhoda, a full brother to Melton, and in foal to Isinglass, was bought by Mr. W. Brodrick-Cloete for 1,400 guineas. Mr. J. E. Platt, seller of Rhoda, turned around and bought two grand mares, however, in Primrose and Flower Girl. Primrose is by Uncas (son of Stockwell) out of Mosque, and, with her colt foal by Ayrshire, cost 1,750 guineas. For Flower Girl, and her colt foal by Pepper and Salt, Mr. Platt gave 2,800 guineas. Flower Girl's three-year-old colt, Captain Martin, by Martagon, is one of this year's cracks, and doubtless Mr. Platt bought the mare to breed to his stallion Kendal, both Kendal and Martagon being sons of Bend Or.

"Two valuable stallions which changed hands during the week were Satiety, by Isonomy, bought by Captain Machell for 2,000 guineas, and Juggler, by Lord Lyon, which went to Lord Marcus Beresford for 1,550 guineas. Juggler has already sired Jest, Fosco (late Imposition), Barneyhill, Rosemerryn and many other good winners, and looks a bargain at that price, while Satiety's son, Piety, is one of the best stayers in England.

"While there were many sales at very satisfactory figures, we have above enumerated all the animals which brought 1,000 guineas or over. We are glad to see prices keep up to a good level in England, and we trust that all the plucky buyers of the high-priced lots will have good luck with their purchases, while we have no doubt that many of the other lots will repay their investors with good interest."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Outlaw racing in the states of Maryland and Pennsylvania is practically a dead card, but the game still shows some evidence of life. At a conference of track owners and other promoters of this kind of racing in the east the other day, it was decided to hold a meeting at Wheeling, W. Va., some time this month. The present intentions are to open up on July 25.

Dr. Catlett has been a great disappointment in his 4-year-old form, but recent training reports say that he is beginning to gallop in a way that suggests he will soon take his rightful place as a winner in good company.

The estate of the late English jockey G. Barrett, is said to be worth $176,000, of which $145,000 is personal property. For a jockey to leave much property is an exception to the rule. While they are making money they lose sight of the fact that their careers are short and seldom put away anything for a rainy day.

Rogers & Rose are credited with making a "killing" at Brighton Beach Saturday through the victory of their colt Easter Card. At prices ranging from 15 to 1 to 6 to 1 they invested enough to reap a return that is put at $30,000 as a minimum.

Lustig, brown filly, 2, by Argyle—Peri, by Flood, the property of W. F. Schulte, died at Latonia on Tuesday, July 5. She was considered a promising filly, and had a number of engagements.

A. Belmont has leased to W. C. Daly, until December 1, the racing qualities of Lady Marian, chestnut filly 3, by Rayon d'Or—Lady Margaret.

Jockey Songer has been released from his contract with Mr. James Galway and will ride for the Kensico stable.

Winner—Ch. g. 5, by Sobranje—Pleased.
Off at first break. Start good. Won easily; second and third whipped out. Roger B. proved the best, and was well ridden. He is a shifty selling plater and runs consistently. Necedah ran a good race, perhaps the best one she has run this year. She has worked fast and it looks as though she should win a race soon. Dorothy III. is a bad betting tool. She looked to have a chance on the far turn but could not respond when called upon. Whitcomb has never gone a mile before and judging from this race doesn't fancy the route. Can't Dance seems to be of no account. He was off in a bad place, though, and Martin never urged him very hard. It was a bad lot.

Overweights—Necedah, 3 pounds; Double Dummy, 2.

Winner—B. c, by Oddfellow—Sister to Pendleton I.
Post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second, third and fourth were driving hard. Fontainebleu ran an excellent race. He seems to be a good colt and is said to have recently worked three-quarters in 1:14. The first five furlongs of it was in 1:01. Frank Bell had a world of speed. He perhaps should have won. On the stretch turn he seemed to be running easily, but bolted. He lost considerable ground by this, but came fast under punishment. Batten got a flying start, but it did him no good. He had no excuses, and ran his race. Souchon was all tangled up at the start. So was Sevens. McNickle pulled the latter up when he saw he had no chance. Throw both races out. Gauntlet had a rough journey and did well. Frank Ireland seems to be of no present account. Fat Cleburne did not run his race.

Scratched—Facade, 105; Hardy Pardee, 110; Sea Lion, 110; Tulla Fonso, 100; Prince McClurg, 108.

Overweights—Frank Ireland, 2 pounds.

Time, 24, 49, 1:14, 1:40, 1:44.
Winner—B. g. 4, by Emperor of Norfolk—Jennie B.
Off at first break to a good start. Won in a long, hard drive of two; third eased a trifle at the end. This was the worst form reversal of the meeting. Considering Bernardillo's last race he did not seem to have a possible chance. His last out he was beaten off all the way. He wore bandages and no blinkers that day. He was warmed up in bandages to-day, but they were removed before the race. Coffey had permission to use blinkers. Bernardillo was heavily played, too. Thorpe rode a good race, but was on the best horse as the race was run. He was shut off trying to get through at the half mile ground. All the others, though, pulled wide on the stretch turn and left room enough for a chariot to drive through. Teutonna improved suddenly also. He was very tired and bore in all through the stretch. Joe Clark and Bishop Reed raced each other to pieces early. Both stopped badly on the end, the latter almost to a walk.

Scratched—George H. Ketcham, 107; Cyclone II, 106; Dunois, 107.

Winner—B. f. 3, by Islington—Songstress.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second whipped out; third eased a trifle at the end. This makes another record for Washington Park. Mary Black is certainly a speed marvel. She took the track early and raced those behind her dizzy going the first five-eighths. All little Reiff had to do was to hold her head up and she did the rest. Afamada is a fast trick herself. Clawson took her back some on the turn and when straightened away it looked as though Lady Ellerslie would beat her for the place. She had something left, though, and came with a rush under the whip. Lady Ellerslie was outclassed. She ran a good race though. Dan Rice had bad luck in the race. So did Joe Ullman, who, was badly shut off down the back stretch.

Scratched—Tartarian, 106; Bellicoso, 109.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Vagabond—Acra.
Off at first break to a good start. It was a terrific drive between the first two. Muskalonge was perhaps the best. He came from far behind in the stretch and would have won in another stride. The finish was a very close one. So close that only the judges could decide who won. Friar John was lucky and well ridden. He is a game horse though and stood the drive through the stretch like a gentleman. At the jockey board he stumbled and almost fell, but for that he would have won by a greater margin. Considering the bad luck Treachery had, she ran a good race. Official was rank and could not be placed, consequently he was pumped out by pacemaking. Pinar del Rio was cut off at every turn. Mistleton was raced to pieces with Official. Yuba Dam seemed to be of no account.

Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third hard at it. Mountain Dew was lucky and probably the best. She slipped through on the rail and saved ground. Lillie Paxton received a miserable ride. She was taken back to last place at the start and Clay made a weak effort on her at the end. Bolerie ran an improved race under good handling. Lady Memphis failed right at the end.

Post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won in a gallop; second easily. Lady of the West was much the best. She waited until Miss Lizzie and R B Sack came back to her and then galloped in. Chicuita II, under bad handling, ran a creditable race.
Scratched—Sir Dick, 104.

Winner—Blk. c, 3, by Stonehenge—Chemise.
Post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won in a gallop; second driving. Gibraltar was much the best. He let Purity and Miss Verne race their heads off in front, then galloped over them. David was slow to begin but finished strong. His recent hard races over a distance may have taken away his sharp turn of speed.

Winner—Br. h, 8, by Falconer—Tincture.
Start good. Won driving. Tinge was best today and his present form is very good. Glonoine is a rater. He came fast at the end and ran an exceptionally good race. Is in bad hands. Juno was probably short. She ran finely but stopped as usual. The Governor wants a slow track. He is of the improving kind and will do to watch. Ella Daly is of no account. Banquo II was badly shut off on the first turn and sulked afterwards, bearing out on both turns. Octave is of no present account. Calculation is good only in mud and in short races.
Scratched—Debride, 111; Endeavor, 109; Forget, 109; Mr. Kaltenbach, 102.

7223 SECOND RACE—5-8 Mile. $600 added. 2-year-olds. Allowances.

Winner—B. f, by Islington—Mollie.
Start straggling. Won easily. Effervescent got a flying start. She was perfectly handled and lucky. La Cheviot got off badly. She closed a tremendous gap and was possibly the best. She is a very fine looker. Tut Tut ran a fine race and showed great speed. Maid of Harlem got an atrocious ride. Lepida, off badly, closed strong, showing improvement. Miriam Claire did not run her race. Helen Thomas had no chance with her jockey. Is only ordinary anyway.
Scratched—Tendresse, 105; Lady Dora, 105; Incandescent, 105; Sky Scraper, 105; Diminutive, 105.
Overweights—Effervescent, 4 pounds; Miriam Claire, 2.

7224 THIRD RACE—5-8 Mile. $500 added. 3-year-olds. Maidens. Selling.
